

*O blessed thought! How can it be -
My loved one waits at Home for me,
Together we'll be with our Lord,
The One in life we both adored;
Great happiness awaits us there
When all of heaven's joy we'll share,
O blessed thought! How can it be -
My Lord and loved one wait for me.*

*Look up beyond the blue, beloved, dream of time to come -
Think of heaven with its joys for that will help you some.
There'll be no pain or suffering, no sadness and no fears,
No sorrow, sin, no guilt no loneliness or tears.*

*But there's something even greater that our souls are waiting for -
We long to see our Savior Whom we now love and adore,
He suffered, bled and died for us - He bore our sin and care,
Oh, heaven will be Heaven because Jesus will be there.*

Don't Wait! It Might be too Late!

A story is told about a man who was visited often by an insurance agent and urged to take out fire coverage on his house. The homeowner always refused saying, "It's well built, and I maintain it properly. You're just trying to scare me. My house will never catch fire."

But one day it happened! As the story goes, while the flames were pushing through the roof and the black smoke was pouring out of the windows, the owner was seen running down the street to the agent's office to purchase a fire insurance policy. "Oh, how foolish!" you say. Yes, of course. NO company would insure a house that was already on fire.

But this story does show us the folly of putting off an important decision. And there is no decision as important as making sure your soul is saved. Our Lord Jesus has paid the penalty for your sins that you might escape God's wrath.

His judgment will fall on all those who do not place their faith in Christ for the forgiveness of their sins. And remember, "all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23).

Think of how much God loves you. Jesus suffered, bled and died for you. He asks now that you repent of your sins and trust Him for your soul's salvation.

Dear friend, there is no other way to be saved. Church membership or livings a good life will not save your soul. There is only one way. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me" (John 14:6).

Beloved, Don't be foolish like the man in the story. Believe in Christ and receive him as your savior today. Right now, before it is too late, come to Jesus. "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:13).

For This, I Have Jesus

In a meeting in Ireland, the evangelist was speaking on the subject of abiding in Christ and how we can trust Him completely in every trial. At the conclusion of his message, he said several times, "It means that in every circumstance you can keep on saying, 'For this I have Jesus.'" He then asked for testimonies. A lady at the piano stood up and said, "I have to leave shortly so I'd like to be the first to testify. Just a few minutes ago I was handed this telegram. It reads, 'Mother is very ill; take train home immediately.'" When I saw those words, I knew that tonight's message was meant just for me. My heart looked up and said 'for this I have Jesus.' Instantly a peace and strength flooded my soul. . . For all this strain and suspense . . . I praise God that for this too I have Jesus."

Weeks later she wrote to the evangelist saying, "Thank you again for your message. Life has become an uninterrupted psalm of victory . . . No matter what life brings, for this I have Jesus." And beloved, He has said, "Lo, I am with you always..."
