

Age 7

I've learned that our dog doesn't want to eat my brussel sprouts either.

Age 12

I've learned that just when I get my room the way I like it, Mum makes me clean it up again.

Age 14

I've learned that if you want to cheer yourself up, you should try cheering someone else up.

Age 15

I've learned that although it's hard to admit it, I'm secretly glad my parents are strict with me.

Age 24

I've learned that silent company is often more healing than words of advice.

Age 26

I've learned that brushing my child's hair is one of life's great pleasures.

Age 29

I've learned that wherever I go, the world's worst drivers have followed me there.

Age 30

I've learned that if someone says something unkind about me, I must live so that no one will believe it.

Age 44

I've learned that you can make some one's day by simply sending them a little note.

Age 46

I've learned that the greater a person's sense of guilt, the greater his or her need to cast blame on others.

Age 47

I've learned that children and grandparents are natural allies.

Age 48

I've learned that no matter what happens, or how bad it seems today, life does go on, and it will be better tomorrow.

Age 49

I've learned that singing "Amazing Grace" can lift my spirits for hours.

Age 52

I've learned that you can tell a lot about a man by the way he handles these three things: a rainy day, lost luggage, and tangled Christmas tree lights.

Age 52

I've learned that keeping a vegetable garden is worth a medicine cabinet full of pills.

Age 53

I've learned that regardless of your relationship with your parents, you miss them terribly after they die.

Age 58

I've learned that making a living is not the same thing as making a life.

Age 61

I've learned that if you want to do something positive for your children, work to improve your marriage.

Age 62

I've learned that ours is the God of the second chance, third chance, fourth ...

Age 65

I've learned that if you pursue happiness, it will elude you, but if you focus on your family, the needs of others, and doing the very best you can for the Lord, happiness will find you.

Age 66

I've learned that whenever I decide something with kindness, I usually make the right decision.

Age 72

I've learned that everyone can use a prayer.

Age 75

I've learned that it pays to believe in miracles. To tell the truth, I've seen several.

Age 82

I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one.

Age 85

I've learned that every day you should reach out and touch someone. People love that human touch — holding hands, a warm hug, or just a friendly pat on the back.

Age 92

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn.

"Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding."

Proverbs 3:13
