

Meet God In The Morning

Llynnoedd Mymbyr
North Wales

I met God in the morning
When my day was at its best,
And His presence came like sunrise
Like a glory in my breast

All day long the Presence lingered,
All day long He stayed with me,
And we sailed in perfect calmness
O're a very troubled sea.

Other ships were blown and battered,
Other ships were sore distressed,
But the winds that seemed to drive them
Brought us a peace and rest!

Then I thought of other mornings,
With a keen remorse of mind,
When I, too, had loosed the moorings with the Presence left behind.

So I think I know the secret,
Leaned from many a trouble way;
You must seek Him in the morning
If you want Him through the day.

¹⁰ Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. ¹¹ The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. ¹² She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. ... ²⁵ Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. ²⁶ She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. ²⁷ She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. ²⁸ Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Proverbs 33

It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.
