

THEMES OF THE 66 BOOKS OF THE BIBLE

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

“They are they which testify of me.” No more powerful motive can be urged upon Bible readers than this: he who finds Jesus finds life, heaven, all things. Happy is he who, searching his Bible, discovers his Saviour.”

...Charles H. Spurgeon

Psalm 40:7, “Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,”

Hebrews 10:7, “Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.”

“In the volume of the book it is written of me.” The pages of both testaments are filled with the testimony of Jesus Christ.

God's Two Great Lights

The Bible - The Written Word

Jesus Christ - the living Word

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Psalm 119:105

The religion of the Lord Jesus Christ is a religion of light. One of the most splendid descriptions of our Heavenly Father is in the words of John: "God is light, and in him is no darkness at all" (1 John 1:5). James says, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights" (James 1:17). Note James' descriptive name for God, "The Father of light." And the Lord Jesus declares that those who seek to do the will of God are the "children of light" (John 12:36). Our Savior never said a more splendid thing about Himself than when He uttered that sublime declaration, "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12; 9:5). Everywhere in the Scriptures, light is used as an emblem of the righteous character of those who are the true children of God. Yes, the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ is a religion of light.
