

Dad, I thought we couldn't afford that computer program?

We can't! My friend gave me a pirate (stolen) copy!

My dad stole an expensive computer program, but he said Christians aren't supposed to do that kind of thing.

Junior is shocked.

Dad, the people on TV are saying bad words?

It's OK for me! I'm an adult. You go to bed.

My dad watches TV with bad words, and people not wearing very much clothes. Dad told me that God doesn't want us to watch things like that, BUT HE DOES.

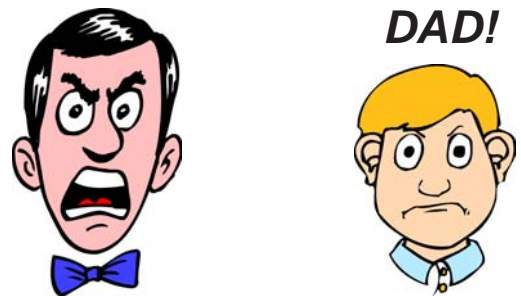

Junior is catching on.

TEN YEARS LATER

Stealing, swearing, lying!
Where did you learn to act that way?

FROM YOU, DAD!

Bring up a child in the way he shouldn't go -- and you'll regret it.

“Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.” Proverbs 22:6

More is Caught Than Taught

I learn more by what you do than what you say.
