

Noah's Carpenters

Many hundred years ago They ventured to remark
That Noah had some carpenters To help him build the Ark.
But sad to say on that last day When Noah entered in,
Those carpenters were left outside And perished in their sin.

How sad to think they may have Helped to build the Ark so great,
Yet still they heeded not God's Word And awful was their fate.
Today the same sad fate exists Among the sons of men,
They Help to build the so-called Church Who are not born again.

They stay behind for sacrament, They work, they sing, they pray;
Yet never have accepted Christ, The Life, the Truth, the Way.
Another judgment day will come, As sure as came the flood,
And only those will be secure Who shelter 'neath Christ's Blood.

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” Matt. 7:21-23

WHAT IS A SQUARE?

Everybody knows a few squares. I know one. He's that strong, polite, God-fearing young fellow who freely admits that he prays, weeps for joy, plays with little kids, kisses his mother, goes to his dad for advice, and thinks old folks are great. He wears clothes that fit him, puts savings in the bank, has his hair neatly groomed, likes school, can't imitate all the television comics, avoids dirty discussions about sex - he even blushes. He goes to church, drinks milk, drives within the speed limit, is in bed by 12, doesn't smoke, and expects purity in girls.

As a result of his unusual behavior, he suffers the loss of gang companionship; but he gains the gratitude and admiration of his parents, family, and teachers, has an unjaded imagination, and enjoys spiritual perception. To some he may seem a strange fellow, but I like him!

Neglect

Neglect your business
and become bankrupt.
Neglect your health
and be in your grave.
Neglect your fields
and have no harvest.
NEGLECT YOUR SOUL
and be DAMNED!

Bible Mathematics

We are not to add to the Bible,
nor to subtract from it,
but to rightly divide it.

“...If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life ...” Revelation 22:18-19
“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” 2 Tim. 2:15
