

BAPTIST DOG

A Baptist couple felt it important to own an equally Baptist pet, so they went shopping. At a kennel specializing in this particular breed, they found a dog they liked quite a lot. When they asked the dog to fetch the Bible, he did it in a flash. When instructed to look up Psalms 23, the dog complied equally fast, using his paws with dexterity. They were so impressed that the couple purchased the animal and took him home.

That night the couple had friends over. They were so proud of their new Baptist dog and his major skills that they wanted to show him off. They called the dog and gave him his commands. The friends were impressed, and asked whether the dog was able to do any of the usual dog tricks as well.

This stopped the couple cold, as they hadn't thought about "normal" tricks. "Well," they said, "let's try it out."

Once more they called the dog, and they clearly pronounced the command, "Heel!" As quick as a wink, the dog jumped up, put his paw on the man's forehead, closed his eyes in concentration, and bowed his head...

HE WAS A PENTECOSTAL!

ELSPETH THE SPIDER or DON'T QUIT

This is the story of Elspeth the spider. She taught the Scottish King, Robert the Bruce, to try harder. Many years ago Robert was hiding in her spooky cave. His English enemies were searching the hills for him.

Robert was lying quietly in the dark when he suddenly saw Elspeth pop up! She spun her web not five, not six, but seven times before she got it right. Robert realised he had to try harder in everything he did.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Galatians 6:7-9

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
