You Interpret This Verse!

“The fool hath said
in his heart there is no God.”

The translators of the King James Bible used italics to tell us when they supplied words (for sake of clarity) that were not in the original manuscripts. Therefore this verse could read (1) The fool has said in his heart there is no such thing as God or (2) The fool has said in his heart, no God. (in other words, there is a God but I will not obey Him.)

Either way, the person who rejects God,
and His authority ... is behaving like a fool.

¹The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. ²The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. ³They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Psalm 14:1-3
